‘Views of the world, beyond the classroom’

International Grammar School’s rich overseas or interstate languages and intercultural exchanges and music, history, drama and science tour programs provide an array of opportunities and experiences for students from senior Primary School through to Year 12!

The opportunities

- Chinese
- French
- German
- Italian
- Japanese
- Spanish
- Music (biannual)
- Drama
- History (biannual)
- Social Justice - Antipodeans (biannual)
- Indigenous Connections
- Science (USA)
- Art and Design (Europe and US)

IGS students also have the opportunity to host an exchange student – or enjoy having visiting students join them in class.

See all program details including dates, year groups and approximate costings inside this brochure.
